

2005 Federal Energy Act UST Provisions

	Statutory Deadline	Status of EPA Guidelines	Missouri Actions
1. Financial Responsibility (FR) for manufacturers/installers Or Double-walled equipment at all new installations & when equipment is replaced	Feb-07	EPA's final grant guidelines issued 1/23/07	SB1020 passed by 2006 state legislature; Division of Wts and Measures' rule implementing the new law goes into effect January 30, 2008. List of companies that have FR and are registered is posted here .
		EPA's final grant guidelines issued 11/15/06	N.A.
2. Delivery Prohibition -- States must identify USTs that are grossly out of compliance & prohibit delivery of fuel to those tanks	Aug-07	EPA's final grant guidelines issued 8/7/06	SB907 proposed in Missouri Legislature; would give DNR "red tag" authority.
3. Compliance -- Government-Owned USTs -- Onetime report from states is required	Aug-07	EPA's final grant guidelines issued 4/24/07	DNR sent report on compliance status of government-owned tanks to EPA on August 8, 2007; attached here . Reports from all 50 states are available here .
4. Public Record -- States must make info available on number, sources & causes of leaks; UST compliance; and number of equip failures	First report due Sept 2008	EPA's final grant guidelines issued 1/23/07	DNR will file initial report in September 2008.
5. Inspections -- States must inspect any UST that has not been inspected since the 1998 upgrade deadline And Must inspect USTs at least once every three years	Aug-07	EPA's final grant guidelines issued 4/24/07	All have been inspected.
	Beginning August 2007		Beginning 7/1/07, all UST sites in MO will be inspected at least once every three years by a contractor working for MDNR and PSTIF.

2005 Federal Energy Act UST Provisions

6. Operator Training -- EPA must issue guidelines that "specify training requirements" for 3 classes of employees

EPA guidelines due August 2007; states must begin implementation by August 2009

EPA's final grant guidelines issued 8/8/07

DNR is reviewing guidelines and will hold meetings with interested parties.