MO RBCA Requirements

No Change Now, But Coming Soon!

Missouri's current UST rules incorporate the 2004 Tanks RBCA Guidance Document and supplemental documents issued in 2005; the rules state you can use these documents to guide your cleanups until December 31, 2012.

In a statement released this week, the Director of the MDNR announced that you may continue using the 2004/2005 guidance documents, even though the rules' deadline has passed. She also announced that proposed changes to these guidance documents will be distributed soon.

Watch this newsletter for coming announcements about webinars to review/discuss the proposed changes!
